Layne wed to Hammock

The marriage of Miss Carolyn Denise Layne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Overton Pettus, III, and Timothy William Hammock, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Albert Hammock, all of Keysville, took place on Saturday, September 3, at two o'clock in the afternoon at Spring Creek Baptist Church in Darlington Heights, Virginia.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Reverend Coan Agee, pastor of Ash Camp Baptist Church, before an altar of lighted tapers in tiered candelabras with arrangements of pink and white silk roses. The unity candle was used in the ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Ms. Vivian Howard. She also accompanied Miss Annette Agee who sang "The Wedding Song" and Annie's Song".

The bride, escorted by her father and presented in marriage by both parents, wore a formal gown of white organza over taffeta trimmed with Chantilly lace. The Chantilly lace bodice of the gown was styled with an embroidered schiffli yoke and Victorian neckline covered with seed pearls. The long straight sleeves of Chantilly lace and seed pearls ended in points over her hands. Double tiers of ruffled lace edged the hemline and attached chapel train. The chapel length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a halo of pink and white silk flowers with pink satin ribbon streamers. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of pink and burgundy silk roses, pink day lilies, ivy and stephanotis.

The groom wore a white foraml tuxedo and a boutonniere of a pink silk rosebud with baby's breath.

Mrs. Cynthia Pillow served as Matron of Honor. She wore a formal length gown of pink gorgette crepe with a lace bodice and elbow-length sleeves. The gown featured a high stand-up collar of matching lace. She carried a cascade of pink silk sweetheart rosebuds, burgundy azaleas and baby's breath with pink and burgundy satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ka-Le Pettus, sister of the bride; Mrs. Lonnette Layne, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Anne Green, and Miss Teri Hammock, sisters of the groom; and junior bridesmaid, Miss Tracey Scruggs, cousin of the bride. Their gowns were identical to that of the matron of honor. They carried nosegays of pink silk roses, burgundy azaleas, and baby's breath with pink and burgundy satin streamers. The bride designed all of her flowers for the wedding.

Little Miss April Joel Pillow was flower girl. She wore a white dress of organdy accented with a wide pink sash. Her white wicker basket had streamers of pink and burgundy satin ribbons.

Master William Hunter Green Jr. was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and a boutonnaire of a burgundy azalea with baby's breath. He carried a cross-stitched pillow made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Joan Costen.

William Albert Hammock, father of the groom, served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Mark Hammock, brother of the groom; Joseph Layne Jr., brother of the bride; William Green, brother-in-law of the groom; Douglas Agee, friend of the groom; and junior usher, Alan Scruggs, cousin of the bride. They were light grey tuxedos, identical to those of the best man and the bride's father, with boutonnaires of burgundy silk azaleas and baby's breath.

Mrs. Pettus chose for her daughter's wedding a formal length gown of mauve gorgette crepe accented with a burgundy silk rose corsage.

Mrs. Hammock chose for her son's wedding a formal length gown of burgundy crepe accented with a pink silk rose corsage.

Mrs. Audrey Cobb, aunt of the bride, served as mistress of ceremony assisted by Mrs. Barbara Metcalf and Mrs. Mae Shorter. Miss Kandi Pettus, sister of the bride, presided at the guest register. Miss Kathleen Farnsworth, cousin of the bride, presented the wedding programs.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents held a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Helen Stimpson and Mrs. Deborah Wilkinson, cousins of the bride, served the wedding cake. Miss Beverly Coates, cousin of the bride, served at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Joan Coates, Mrs. Margaret Scruggs and Mrs. Bernadine Tucker, aunts of the bride, Mr. Ralph Crawley and Mrs. Mildred Hughes assisted with the reception.

For traveling, the bride chose a navy sundress accented with a white jacket and white accessories. She wore her mother's corsage from the wedding.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will reside in Keysville.

Parties honor Miss Layne

On Saturday, July 23, Joan Coates, Margaret Scruggs and Lonnette Layne honored Carolyn Denise Layne, bride-elect, with a lingerie shower in Farmville. Upon arrival, Miss Layne was presented a corsage of pink carnations. A color scheme of pink, white and green was used. Many useful gifts were received.

Mrs. Sandra Bell entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the Hampden House, Hampden-Sydney College, on Tuesday, August 9. Upon arriving, the honoree was presented with a corsage of red rosebuds. The couple received many nice gifts.

Mrs. Betty Watts, Mrs. Betty Graves and Mrs. Laura Childress honored Miss Layne with a miscellaneous shower at Ash Camp Baptist Church fellowship hall on Friday, August 12. Upon arrival, the bride-elect was presented a corsage of white daisies and a gift of silver napkins rings by the hostesses. The fellowship hall was beautifully decorated with a color scheme of pink, white and green. The couple received many lovely and useful gifts.

On Saturday, August 13, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Cobb, Sr. entertained with a champagne buffet for the couple in their home in Charlotte Court House. Upon arrival, the couple was presented a beautiful wedding book and the bride-elect a corsage of miniature pink carnations by the hostess. The home was beautifully decorated with a color scheme of pink and burgundy.

Mrs. George O. Pettus, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker entertained with a champagne luncheon at The King and I for the bride-elect and her attendants on Satuday, August 20. The bride-elect presented her attendants and those assisting with the wedding handmade gifts of appreciation.

The Reverend and Mrs. Coan Agee and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Claybrook honored the couple and the wedding party with a cookout at the Agee home on Sunday evening, August 21. The couple was presented a lovely wooden serving tray, handpainted by Mrs. Agee.

After the rehearsal on September 2, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hammock entertained the wedding party with a delicious meal at Briary, Country Club.

Meadowlark Club meets

The Meadowlark Club met on Tuesday at Mrs. Virginia Doss' house. The meeting was called to order and a prayer was shared.

It was disclosed that Mrs. Hazel Megginson won a bedspread in a contest sponsored by the club during May which raised $123. It was also noted in the meeting that the Meadowlark Club has given two 4-H scholarships to area children.

The club members visited Babcock Manor in August. All who participated in the visit enjoyed it.
